High Courts, including the Andhra Pradesh High Court, have qualified for increase in their judge strength. The High Courts have been requested to send their proposals for increase in their judge strength through the concerned State Government who has to bear the expenditure on the increased strength of judges.

(f) Filling up of vacancies in the High Courts is a continuous consultative process among the constitutional authorities. While every effort is made to fill up the existing vacancies expendituously, vacancies do keep arising on account of retirements, resignation or elevation of Judges. After the Supreme Court Judgement of October 6, 1993 in the Supreme Court Advocates-on-Record & Anr. Vs. Union of India, read with the Advisory Opinion of October 28, 1998, the entire process of initiation of proposal for appointment of a Judge of a High Court lies with the Chief Justice of that High Court. Government has been periodically reminding the Chief Justices of the High Courts and the Chief Ministers of the States to initiate proposals for filling up all vacant posts of judges in the High Courts as also those which will be falling vacant during the next six months.

(g) The Andhra Pradesh High Court did not qualify for increase in their judge strength in the 2003 review.
